Ken Wilber befasst sich mit der Zusammenführung von Philosophie, Wissenschaft und Religion, den Erfahrungen der Mystiker und der Meditation. Er sieht sich als Protagonist des Integralen Denkens und als Vertreter einer post-postmodernen, postmetaphysischen und postrationalen Spiritualität des „Neo-Perennialismus“ (in Abgrenzung zur eigentlichen Philosophia perennis).

Over this last year we've seen the Integral rubber hitting the road more than ever before, and becoming more relevant than ever. We've begun a series of conversations that go far beyond talking about the model itself — though we still do that too! — and instead focus on applying the model to our present life conditions so that we can better understand them, adapt to them, and thrive amidst ...
